Index

A

Abstract learning, 18
Activities for technology education
  analysis of, 188
  authenticity of, 174–175
  characteristics of, 349–352
  collaborative, 15–17
  concrete, 17–19, 205–206
  designing and developing, 187–193
  documentation for, 191–192
  ease of implementation of, 186–187 hands-on, 172, 269
  integrated with language arts, 117–125
    sample activity for, 126–140
  integrated with social studies, 18
  from Mission 21, 94
  need for discussion of, 270
  testing of, 192–193
Administrators, research on attitudes of, on elementary school technology education, 311
African-American children, barriers faced by, 9
Alberty, E., 40
Alexander, K., 10
American Chemical Society, 299
American Institute of Physics, 299
Analytic ability, 18–19
Analytic skills, in language arts, 114
Anderson, A., 17–18
Anthropology. See Social studies
Arbuthnot, 149, 150
Articulation
  horizontal, 239
  vertical, 239
Assembly activities in hands-on learning, 19
Assessment, 95–97
  authentic, 96–97, 185, 209–211
  in constructivist classroom, 185, 242
  distinguishing between evaluation and, 95–96
  of elementary school technology education activities, 192–193 of hands-on learning, 97
  of interdisciplinary unit, 42–44
  and outcomes-based education movement, 6–7
  portfolios in, 7, 96–97
  purposes of, 42
  rubrics in, 7
  standards-based, 7
  steps in, 96
Attitudes
  social studies in teaching, 37
  toward elementary school technology education, 311
Authenticity of elementary school technology education curriculum, 174–175, 209–212
  modeling solutions in, 211–212

B

Back-to-basics movement, 73
Barriers to implementation of elementary school technology education, 342–345 facility constraints, 344
  lack of expertise, 343–344
  school culture, 345
Baugrud, K. J., 317
Bell, Gary, 229

Benchmarks for Science Literacy, 168, 205
Bender, M., 317
Benefits of elementary school technology education, 251
Benson, K. R., 312
Berlin, D. F., 309
Berliner, D., 6
Bicknell, W. C., 309
Biddle, B., 6
Biological sciences, thematic units in teaching, 154
Blezek, A. G., 312
Bloom, B. S., 97
Bloom, Benjamin, 3–4
Bohan, H., 18
Bonde, R., 317
Boyd, T. G., 284
Boyer, E. L., 79
Bracey, G. W., 6, 16
Brainstorming, 41
Braukmann, J., 14–15
Bredderman, T., 70
Brooks, J. G., 221–222
Brooks, M. G., 221–222
Brown, R., 284
Brown, R. D., 313
Bruce, P. L., 80, 83, 312
Brudzynski, A. J., 318
Brunk, V. N., 83
Brusic, S. A., 84, 319

C

CAL. See Center for Applied Learning (CAL)
Campbell, D. T., 82–83
Campbell, H. L., 317
Capstone courses, 276–277
Career Stages of Classroom Teachers (Steffy), 286–287
The Case for Constructivist Classrooms (Brooks), 221–222
The Cat in the Hat (Seuss), 151–153
Center for Applied Learning (CAL), 233–244 articulation of program at, 239–240 constructivist theory applications at, 240–244
  curriculum
    components of, 237
    continuing evolution of, 243–244
    development of, 236–237
    refinement of, 242–243
  daily schedule at, 238–239
  development of, 234–240
  modular activities at, 237–238
  physical facility at, 235–236
  workshops for teachers at, 239
Chamberlain, D. G., 310
Change agent, teacher as, in inservice education, 284–288
Char, C., 16
Children. See also Students diversity of, in classroom, 10
  effect of family make-up on, 9, 10 intellectual growth of, 3–4 physical needs of, 4–5
  rights of, 4–5
  at risk, 8–10
  social-moral development of, 5
Children's literature. See also Language arts in classroom reading corner, 147–148 designing solution to problem in, 170
  and elementary school technology education, 31, 78, 147–157
  in integrating instruction and curriculum, 78–79
  thematic units in, 150–157
Childress, Vincent, 30
Civics education, 55–57. See also Social studies

Classrooms
effect of design-and-technology approach on, 215
incorporating constructivism in, 222 organization of, to facilitate elementary school technology education, 272
design and resource area, 272
display area, 273
storage area, 273
work area, 272–273
Coaching, in inservice education, 289–290
Cohn, 150
Collaborative learning, 14
activities in, 15–17
Collaborative learning activities, 14, 15–17
Communications technology, 8
Communication technology, WKID Radio case study in, 371–380 Concepts
identification of key, 167
models and paradigms for, 189–190
staircase of, 90–92
Concept teaching, importance to social studies, 37
A Conceptual Framework for Technology Education (Savage and Sterry), 73
Concrete learning, 17–19
Concrete learning activities, 17–19 increase in learning with, 205–206 levels of, 19
for mathematics, 17–18
for science, 19
for social studies, 18
Construction in hands-on learning, 19
Constructive methodology, 29–30
Constructivism and the constructivist approach to elementary school technology education, 11, 219–231. See also Great Technology Adventure basic principles of, 221–222
at Center for Applied Learning (CAL), 240–244
in the classroom, 222
integration with other curricular areas, 221
and need for collaborative programs among teachers, 222
research on, 220–222
Consumable materials, 190, 191
definition, 190
sources of, 191
Consumer sciences, thematic units in teaching, 155–156
Content, technology as, 166–168
Content abstract, 192
Content integrity, 178
Context, technology as, 168–169
Cook, T. D., 82–83
Cooperative learning, 14
Cost-effectiveness of elementary school technology education, 176–177
Costs of materials, 190–191
Curriculum. See also Integrated curriculum
analysis of, 188
development of, in Center for Applied Learning, 236–237, 242–243 integrated, in design-and-technology (D&T) approach to education, 200–203 program recommendations on, 312–313
research on, in teaching elementary school teacher education, 308–315

social studies as area of, in elementary school, 35–37 spiral, 86–87, 92
suggested inservice, 290–292
Curriculum integration and interdisciplinary units, 41–44
design-and-technology (D&T) approach to, 200–203
evaluation of, 42–44
implementation of, 41–42
rationale for, 82–85
sample lessons for technology and social studies, 62–66
studies about, 319
techniques for, 341–342
Curriculum to Reflect Technology, 72

D

Database, research on, in teaching elementary school teacher education, 305–308
Davidson, J., 2
Decoding skills, 148
Delaware, The Great Technology Adventure program in, 228–230
Denton, J. J., 83
Design
conceptual richness as consideration of, 171–172
conceptual transparency as consideration of, 173–174
in The Great Technology Adventure program, 225–226 process of versus products of, 170–171
as a teaching strategy, 169–171
Design-and-technology (D&T) approach to education, 199–216 activities representing, 199–200 authentic assessment in, 209–211
discussion of ideas in, 211–212 effect of, on classrooms, 215 effect of, on schools, 215–216
effect of, on students, 213–214
effect of, on teachers, 214–215
and gender differences, 203–204
in Great Britain, 201–202, 203–204, 209, 213–214 integrated curriculum with, 200–203
interaction of mind and hand in, 209–211
international perspectives on, 203–205 mathematics, science, and technology in, 205–207
modeling solutions in, 211–213
need of adequate constructs in, 202 problem solving process in, 207–209
progression of students in, 204–205
Design education, 13
Design process model (design loop), 207–209
Developmental appropriateness of elementary school technology education, 179–184
for kindergartners, 179–181
for middle grade students, 182–183
for preschool students, 179–181
for primary grade students, 181–182
Dewey, John, 71, 168, 190, 241
Dissertation Abstracts International (DAI), 305

Diversity of children in classrooms, 10
Dixon, R., 8
Documentation for elementary school technology education, 191–192
Doutt, R. F., 317
Downs, W. A., 320
Dreeben, R., 9
Dugger, W. E., 87
Duncan, G. S., 311
Dunn, S., 220–221
Duoma, E. L., 312

E

Economics, 52–55. See also Social studies framework for, 52
fundamental concepts in, 52–53
integrating technology in, 12, 53–54
mini-society programs in, 53–54
Zooconomy units in, 54–55
Educational plan, establishment of, for implementing elementary school technology education in curriculum, 266–267
Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC), 305–306
Elementary education majors, characteristics of, 258–259
Elementary school technology education (ESTE) authenticity of curriculum in, 116, 123, 174–175, 209–212 benefits of, 251
in California, 311, 314
case studies for Operation Oil Spill, 172, 353–362
Pop Can Solar Collectors, 362–371
WKID Radio, 168–169, 371–380
and children's literature, 31, 78, 147–157
in the classroom
design and resource area, 272
display area, 273
storage area, 273
work area, 272–273
in the classroom, 272, 13–19
conceptual richness of, 171–172
conceptual transparency of, 173–174 conditions necessary for implementing, 253 constructive approach to, 11, 29–30, 219–231 content approach to, 29
cost-effectiveness of, 176–177
definition of, 3, 39
design-and-technology (D&T) approach to, 199–216
designing and developing activities for, 187–193
design-oriented, 169–171
developmental appropriateness of, 179–184
for kindergartners, 179–181
for middle grade students, 182–183
for preschool students, 179–181
for primary grade students, 181–182
documentation for, 191–192
emphasis on real experiences, 116, 172
experiential nature of, 175–176
guided inquiry in, 176
historical studies of, 314–315
identification of key concepts for, 167

implementation of
barriers to, 342–345
conditions necessary for, 253
increasing support for, 252–253
inservice teacher training for, 248–249
and integration of subject matter, 14–15, 27–28
integration with language arts, 31, 115–126
activity planning for, 117–125
sample activity for, 126–140
integration with mathematics, 30, 69–101 integration with science, 30, 69–101
integration with social studies, 30–31, 38–67
civics in, 55–57
economics in, 52–55
geography in, 44–49
history in, 49–52
identifying topics for integrated study of, 44–60
law education in, 55–57
political science in, 55–57
psychology in, 57–58
sample unit, 62–66
sociology in, 57–58
values education in, 57–58
introductory course in, 273 feelings of success in, 274
learning experiences in, 274
student motivational levels in, 273
written guidelines for, 274–275
knowledge base for, 166–167
lack of, in teachers' education, 14
"less is more" philosophy of, 166–167
manipulative materials in, 190 method versus content in, 315
in Michigan, 310
in Missouri, 310
motivating force behind, 300
in Nebraska, 312
need for, 28–31
in New Jersey, 310, 311, 312, 316
obstacles to implementation of, 314
in Ohio, 310
organizations supporting, 292, 294–300
International Technology Education Association (ITEA), 294–298
National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), 298–299
Phillips Petroleum Company, 299–300
pedagogical soundness of, 184–186
potential for improving lives of children, 10
preservice teacher training for, 247–248, 251–278
as process, 29, 159–161
in public schools in the United States, 308–311 relationship to other educational programs, 12–13
research about, 249–250, 305–325
attitudes of teachers and administrators, 311 career education, 316
challenged students, 317
curriculum, 308–315
needed, 323–325
public school practices, 308–311
teacher education, 311–312, 313
tool use, 317

role of, in curriculum
form and functions of, 165–166
technology as content, 166–168
technology as context, 168–169
technology as process, 169–171
in the school, 11–13
simulations in, 176
social studies as curriculum area in, 35–37
in Sweden, 309
synergy in, 177–179
time-effectiveness of, 176–177
unique contributions of, 339
in the United Kingdom, 220, 309
value of, 338
Engelhart, M. D., 97
Entwisle, D., 10
Environment education, 46–47
Equipment, sharing and exchanging, 99–100
ESTE. See Elementary school technology education (ESTE) Evaluation. See also Assessment distinguishing between assessment and, 95–96
steps in, 96

F

Facility
constraints, as barriers to implementation of elementary school technology education, 344
in whole-school approach, 235–236
Fagan, R. E., 311
Family makeup, impact of, on education, 9, 10
Family and consumer science, thematic units in teaching, 156
Featherstone, D., 9
The Foot Book, 154–155
Fort, D. C., 80
Foster, P. N., 29–30
Freed, Joanne, 230
Fullan, M., 282
Furst, E. J., 97

G

Gamberg, 150
Gamoran, A., 9
Gamson, Z F., 16
Garnier, H., 10
Gender of students and design-and-technology (D&T) approach to education, 203–204
and language arts curriculum, 116
in upper elementary grades, 183
Geography, 44–49. See also Social studies integration of, in social studies, 12, 45–47 location in, 45
movement in, 47–48
place in, 45–46
regions in, 48–49
relationships within places in, 46–47
Geography education Standards Project, 12
Gerne, T. A., 319
Gilbert, H. G., 313
Gilberti, A. F., 96
Gillespie, Lynda, 7
Girish, G., 81
Goff, W. H., 316
Goldhaber, J., 19
Goodness, L. R., 316
Great Britain
constructivism in, 220
design-and-technology approach in, 201–202, 203–204, 209, 213–214

The Great Technology Adventure program, 219, 222–231
benefits of affiliation with, 228
and career awareness, 227
and communication among member schools, 227–228
components of, 224
curricular integration in, 227
in Delaware, 228–230
the design process in, 225–226
implementation of, 224–225
lead instructors in, 225
materials provided with membership in, 226–228
multiple solutions to problems in, 226
national challenges in, 227
outcomes achieved in, 224
principles underlying, 230–231
simple machines in, 227
technological process in, 223
Gunstone, R. F., 319–320, 321
Gunther, T. C., 318

H

Haertel, E. H., 97
Hales, J. A., 73
Hand-eye coordination in preschool and kindergarten groupings, 180
Handling, as lowest level of hands-on learning, 19
Hands-on activities, developing, 269
Hands-on learning, 14, 17–19, 172. See also Concrete learning activities
evaluation of, 97
in mathematics education, 17–18
in science education, 19
in social studies education, 18, 51
and student creativity, 18–19
Hansen, R. G., 317
Harrold, K. R., 314
Hatcher, B. A., 18
Haury, D. L., 97
Hauser, Bernice, 153
Haws, R. W., 309–310
Health, thematic units in teaching, 153
Hepler, 149
Herbart, Johann Friedrich, 2
Herrick, I. W., 318
Herschbach, D. R., 314
Hickman, 149
Hill, W. H., 97
Hirsch, E. D, 4
History, 49–52. See also Social studies
definition of, 49
technology in studying, 50–52
Hoots, W. R., 312
Horizontal articulation, 239
Horizontal integration of knowledge, 86, 92–93
Hornbake, R. L., 312
Huck, 149
Hurley, C. E., 318
Hutchinson, P. A., 207–208, 222, 309

I

Ideas, social studies in teaching, 36–37
Ilott, H. G., 320, 321
Ilott, J. F. D., 320, 321
Implementation of elementary school technology education
barriers to, 314, 342–345
conditions necessary for, 253
Inaba, L. A., 312
Industrial Arts Curriculum Project (IACP), 72
Industrial arts education, content versus method debate in, 69
Ingram, F. C., 320, 321
Inservice training, 248–249, 281–301

curriculum for, 290–292, 293, 313
definition of, 281–282
diversity of, 291
equipment sharing program in, 100 factors influencing, 291
implementation of, 282–283
model for, 290, 291
NASA offered workshops in, 299
need for, 282–284
organization of, 288–290, 292
starting point for, 292
studies supporting, 314
teacher as change agent in, 284–288
Integrated curriculum. See also Curriculum in design-and-technology (D&T) approach to education, 200–203
and integration of subject matter, 14–15, 27–28
language arts in, 31, 115–126
activity planning for, 117–125
sample activity for, 126–140
mathematics in, 30
science in, 30
social studies in, 30–31, 38–67
civics in, 55–57
economics in, 52–55
geography in, 44–49
history in, 49–52
identifying topics for, 44–60
law education in, 55–57
political science in, 55–57
psychology in, 57–58
sample unit, 62–66
sociology in, 57–58
values education in, 57–58
Integrating Math, Science, and Technology (IMaST), 73 Integration of knowledge
examples, community transportation, 88–93
horizontal and vertical, 86
Mission 21 activities, 94
and the spiral curriculum, 86–87, 93
Integration of technology education with science and mathematics education, 69–101. See also Curriculum integration and interdisciplinary units
as natural outcome, 70–71
political motivation for, 87 Project 2061 recommendations, 75
use of themes in, 87–93
Intellectual growth of children, 3–4 Interdisciplinary education, 177–179
definition, 178
evaluation of, 178–179
pitfalls associated with, 178
Interdisciplinary unit, 41
evaluation of, 42–44
implementation of, 41–42
International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement (IEA), 74
International perspectives on elementary design and technology, 203–205
International Technology Education Association (ITEA), 100–101, 294–298, 299
annual conference of, 101–102, 295, 297 materials available from, 294
Technology Education for Children Council, 297–298

J

Jackson's Mill Industrial Arts Curriculum Theory (Snyder and Hales), 73
Jacobs, H. H., 88

Johnson, C. D., 100
Joint Council on Economic Education, 52, 54. See also National Council on Economic Education
Jongsma, K. S., 17
Joyce, B., 288–290

K

Keller, D. H., 312
Kim, S. D, 17
Kimbell, R., 211–212
Kinder-economy program, 53–54
Kindergarten
  elementary school technology education in, 179–181
  teaching economics in, 53–54
Kohler, R. C., 313
Kowal, J. J., 320
Krathwohl, D. R., 97
Kroh, D. K., 313
Kumar, D. D., 309
KWL procedure in assessment, 43

L

Language arts. See also Children's literature analytic skills in, 114
  components of, 113–114
  integrating with technology education, 115–117, 126
    activity planning for, 117–125
    emphasis on real experiences, 116
    and gender of students, 116
    sample activity for, 126–140
  and literacy, 113–114
  technology as content for, 114
LaPorte, J. E., 88
LaPorte, James, 30
Larson, R., 220–221
Lauda, D., 112, 284
Law education, 55–57. See also Social studies
Learning
  abstract, 18
  authenticity of activities for, 174–175
  collaborative, 14, 15–17
  concrete, 17–19
  cooperative, 14
  object-centered, 18
  prerequisites for meaningful, 59–60
  rote, 164
Learning cycle, 58, 59–60
Leeper, H. T., 313
Lickteig, 149
Life Span Cognitive Development, 220
Life support, thematic units in teaching, 157
Lindblad, S., 309
Listening, as component of language arts, 113–114
Literacy, 113–114
  importance of acquiring, 111
Literacy education, aims of, 148
Literature. See Children's literature
Lloyd, C. J., 310
Loats, H. A., 313
Location, in geography education, 45
Loepp, F., 11
Logan, N., 319
Low, F. G., 311
Lukens, 148

M

Macroeconomics, 52–53
Maley, D., 72–73
  The Maryland Plan, 73
Mancino, J., 40
Manipulation in hands-on learning, 19
Manufacturing technology, thematic units in teaching, 155
The Maryland Plan (Maley), 73

Materials
consumable versus reusable, 190
sources of consumable, 191
Mathematics. See also Mathematics, science, and technology (MST) education
in design-and-technology approach, 205–207
enhancement of, 164
hands-on learning in, 17–18
integration with elementary school technology education, 30
integration with science education, 71, 206–207
manipulatives in, 18
recent reform in, 76–77
spiral curriculum in, 87, 93
standards for, 18, 76–77
symbiosis with science and technology education, 87
Mathematics, science, and technology (MST) education, 69–101 approaches to, in elementary schools, 85–93
constraints to, 98–100
and design-and-technology (D&T) education, 205–207
evaluation and assessment of students in, 95–97
planning phases of, 98
problem-solving approach to, 94–95
reform of, 71–85
resources for, 98–100
May, Jill, 148–149
May, W., 40
McCaulay, David, 148
McCrory, D., 284
McGuire, L. S., 316
McLaren, R. L, 316
Meinbach, 150–151
Microeconomics, 52
Millersville State College, 314
Mini-society programs for economics education, 53–54
Minority groups, barriers facing, 9–10
Mission 21, 73, 81, 94, 99, 313
Mitchell, R., 96–97
Mittlefehldt, B., 79, 80
Modular activities, development of, in Center for Applied Learning, 237–238
Moore, J. P., 311
Motor skills
in preschool and kindergarten groupings, 180
in primary grades, 181
Movement in geography education, 47–48

N

National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), 298–299
National Association for Plastic Container Recovery, 299
National Commission on Excellence in Education, 5, 171
National Committee on Science Education Standards and Assessment, 75
National Conference on Elementary Industrial Arts, 283
National Council for the Social Studies, 12
National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM), 18, 70, 76, 299
National Council on Economic Education, 52
sample units available from, 54
National Science Education Standards, 168
National Science Education Standards (National Research Council), 13

National Science Foundation, 202n, 299
National Science Teachers Association (NSTA), 70, 299
A Nation at Risk, 5, 171
NEWEST (NASA Educational Workshop for Elementary School Teachers), 299
Nichols, C. T., 309
Notepad, construction of, 126–144

O

Oaks, M. M., 317
OBE (Outcome-based education), 6–7
Object-centered learning, 18
Olson, D. W., 72
One-on-one instruction, 10
Operation Oil Spill, 172, 353–362
Organizations supporting elementary school technology education, 292, 294–300
  International Technology Education Association (ITEA), 294–298
  National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), 298–299
  Phillips Petroleum Company, 299–300
Osburn, Burl Neff, 314
Outcome-based education (OBE), 6–7

P

Palow, W. P., 318
Parallel play in preschool and kindergarten groupings, 180
Parish, T., 9
Parneli, D., 7
Peel, N. D., 313
Perkowski, R. T., 316
Perruso, J. K., 318
Perry, G., 19
Persheen, F. R., 319
Perusek, W., 311
Peterson, S. E., 320
Phillips Petroleum Company, 299–300
Physical needs of children, 4–5
PhysMaTech, 73
Piaget, Jean, 182
Pine, D. T., 100
Pinelli, T. E., 308–309
Place
  in geography education, 45–46
  relationships within, in geography education, 46–47
Polarity problem, 178
Political science, 55–57. See also Social studies
Pomfret, A., 282
Pop Can Solar Collectors, 362–371
Portfolios
  in preservice training, 277
  in student assessment, 7, 96–97
Potpourri phenomenon, 178
Power, A. T., 312
Practical ability, 19
Preschool, elementary school technology education in, 179–181
Preservice training, 247–248, 251–278
  Capstone course for, 276–277
  components of, 258–271
  course content of, 263
  focus of, 265–266
  and growing support for the implementation of technology education, 252–253
  identifying and organizing course content of, 264
  introductory course of, 261–263
  learning experiences in, 263, 265
  portfolios in, 277

preparing teachers to organize classrooms, 272–273
providing direct experiences with children in, 271–272 reality of, 252
reasons for lack of teacher involvement in, 255
role of elementary school teachers in, 254
student teaching in, 277
suggestions for making courses successful, 273–275 technology in, 256–257
thematic units in, 260–261, 268–271
university programs for, 257–258, 275
Primary grades, elementary school technology education in, 181–182
Problem-solving process, 207–209
integration of, into curriculum, 94–95
open-ended questions in, 207 spiral curriculum in facilitation of, 87
technological, 94
Process, technology as, 169–171
Process skills, social studies in teaching, 37
Project 2061, 70, 74–75, 202n, 205
Project Open, 81
Psychology, 57–58. See also Social studies
Puppetry, 149–150

R

Rabelias, François, 2
Reading. See also Children's literature; Language arts
as component of language arts, 113–114
Reading across the curriculum, 202
Reading corner, reasons for incorporating into classroom, 147–148
Reading literacy, 78
Recyclable materials, 191
Regions in geography education, 48–49
Research on teaching elementary school teacher education, 249–250, 305–325 curriculum in, 308–315 database in, 305–308
students in, 315–322
Resources in Technology, 294
Reusable tools, 190
Richards, K. B., 318
Ridenour, M. E., 320
Riley, Richard, 6
Rillero, P., 97
Rivkin, M., 19
Robbins, E. G., 313
Robinson, F. E., 311
Rogers, Linda, 229
Rothlein, 150–151
Roth, W. M., 84–85
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 4
Roy, R., 75
Rubric for identifying technology activities, 351
Rudd, T. J., 319–320, 321
Rule, A. C., 18

S

Safety, thematic units in teaching, 153–154
Savage, E., 73
Schedule, daily, in Center for Applied Learning, 238–239 Schools
adequacy of American public, 5–8 diversity of children in, 10
educational atmosphere in, 252
effect of design-and-technology approach on, 215–216

elementary school technology in, 11–13
sedentary nature of education in, 164–165
socioeconomic status as predictor of performance of, 10
School Science and Mathematics Association, 77
Science. See also Mathematics, science, and technology (MST) education allocation of resources for, 164 attitudes of students toward, 79
in design-and-technology approach, 205–207
hands-on learning in, 19
integration with children's literature, 78
integration with elementary school technology education, 30, 319–320
integration with mathematics education, 71, 206–207
manipulatives in, 19, 164
Operation Oil Spill case study in, 353–362
Pop Can Solar Collectors case study in, 362–371
and technology, thematic units in teaching, 152–153 reasons for lack of emphasis on, 78–80
recent reforms in, 74–76
symbiosis with mathematics and technology education, 87
Science: A Process Approach (SAPA), 77
Science, mathematics, and technology education. See Mathematics, science, and technology (MST) education
Science Curriculum Improvement Study (SCIS), 77
Science-Technology-Society (STS), 75–76
Scobey, Mary-Margaret, 311, 341–342
Sellwood, P., 204–205
Seuss, Dr.
The Cat in the Hat, 151–154
Shawker, P., 18
Shoulder-to-shoulder instruction, 10
Show and tell activities in preschool and kindergarten groupings, 181
Showers, B., 288–290
Silvey, Anita, 151
Simmons, D. D., 313
Simulated conditions in inservice education, 289
Smith, Hendrick, 6
Snyder, J. F., 73
Social action, 35, 36
technology education in fostering involvement in, 39
Social-moral development of children, 5
Social studies concept teaching in, 37
concrete learning activities for, 18
as curriculum area, 35–37
goals of, 30, 37
hands-on learning in, 18, 51
identifying topics for, 44
civics in, 55–57
geography in, 44–49
history in, 49–52
law education in, 55–57
political science in, 55–57
psychology in, 57–58
sociology in, 57–58
values education in, 57–58
integrating technology with, 39–40

integration with elementary school technology education, 30–31, 38–67
sample lesson, 62–66 interdisciplinary unit in, 41–44
students' learning of, 35–36
Society, impact of technology on, 8
Society of Manufacturing Engineers, 299
Society of the Plastics Industry, 299
Socioeconomic status as predictor of school performance, 10
Sociology, 57–58. See also Social studies
Somers, S. L., 320
South Central Kansas Elementary Math-Science Project (SoCKEMS), 77
Speaking as component of language arts, 113–114
Spiral curriculum, 86–87, 92
Squibb, A. R., 310
Stages of Concerns About the Innovation (SOC) model, 285–286
Staircase of concepts, 90–92
Star Trek, 155–157
Status studies on elementary school technology education, 308–311
Steffy, B., 286–287
Sternberg, R. J., 18–19
Sterry, L., 73
Students. See also Children
assessment and evaluation of, 95–97
collaborative research activities by, 15–17
concrete learning activities for, 17–19
creativity of, and hands-on learning, 18–19
effect of design-and-technology approach on, 213–14
gender of, 116, 183
involvement of, in social studies, 35–37
low-achieving, 16
and problem-solving activities, 205–206
research on, in teaching elementary school teacher education, 315–322
Student teaching in student assessment, 277
Subject-matter integration, 14–15
Sunal, Cynthia Szymanski, 18, 30–31
Sunal, Dennis, 30–31
Sutherland, 149, 150
Swerdlow, R. M., 310
Synergy, 177–179
Synthetic ability, 18

T

Taba, H., 87
Teachers
as agents of change, 284–288
characteristics of elementary education majors, 258–259
concerns of about change, 284–285
constructivist, 184–186, 241–242
effect of design-and-technology approach on, 214–215
enthusiasm in effective, 241
as facilitators of learning, 10, 184, 242
inservice training for, 248–249, 281–301
lack of training and experience in technology, 202
preparation of, 256–257
preservice education of, 247–248, 251–278
experiences in, 266
studies supporting, 314
professional organizations for, 292, 294–300

qualities necessary for success, 254 reasons for lack of involvement of in elementary school technology education, 255 research on attitudes of, on elementary school technology education, 311 research on training of, 311–312 role of elementary, 254
understanding of technology by non-technologist, 189
university training programs for, 257–258, 275
Teaching Children About Technology (Scobey), 341
Teaching Integrated Mathematics and Science (TIMS), 77
Teaching Notes, 300
Team teaching
coordination of, 98
of themes, 92
webbing in, 92, 98
Technological problem solving, 94
Technology
as catalyst, 38
and children's literature, 147–157
conceptualization of, 189–190
as content, 166–168
for language, 114
as context, 168–169
definition, 38, 112
in design-and-technology approach, 205–207
ethical dimension of, 113
impact of, on society, 8
need for education in, 28–31
as process, 169–171
trade books about, 189
understanding of, by teachers without a technological background, 189
as vehicle for social action, 38–39
Technology and Children, 295
Technology activities, characteristics of, 349–352
Technology Bank, 295, 296
Technology education, 13. See also Elementary school technology education (ESTE)
definition of, 39, 112–113
integration of, into language arts, 115–117, 126
construction of notepad, 126–144
planning activities in, 117–125
as process, 159–161
Technology Education for Children Council (TECC), 101, 297–298
Technology for All Americans (TAA), 73–74, 101
Technology for Children Program, 311, 312, 316
Technology is Elementary (video), 294
Technology Lab 2000, 235, 243
Technology logs, documentation of thinking and creating process in, 225
Technology, Science, Mathematics Integration Project, 73
Technology Student Association, 219
The Great Technology Adventure program, 222–231
The Technology Teacher (TTT), 101, 294, 295
Ten Sleep School. See Center for Applied Learning (CAL)
Testing. See Assessment; Evaluation
Thematic units, 81, 150–157, 267–271
for biological sciences, 154

designing, 268–269
examples of
The Cat in the Hat, 151–154
The Foot Book, 154–155
Harnessing the Wind, 267–271
Star Trek, 155–157
for family and consumer science, 156
for health and safety, 153–154
in higher elementary grades, 92
in integrating technology education with science and mathematics education, 87–93 involving children in, 267
for life support, 157
for manufacturing technology, 155
in preservice training, 260–261
for science and technology, 152–153
team teaching of, 92
web of questions and ideas in, 89–90
Thieme, E., 320
Thompson, M., 9
Todd, R. D., 222
Tools, children's use of, 317
Training. See Inservice training; Preservice training
Transportation technologies, 86–87
Trapanese, M. G., 310
Trautman, D. K., 317
Tuckey, C. E., 311

U

Unified Science and Mathematics for the Elementary Schools (USMES), 77, 83–84
United Kingdom. See Great Britain
University teacher training programs, 257–258
characteristics of elementary education majors, 258–259
status of, for elementary school curriculum majors, 275
Upper elementary grades, elementary school technology education in, 182–184
Using Novels for Interdisciplinary Technology Education and Science (UNITES), 78

V

Values, social studies in teaching, 36, 37
Values education, 57–58. See also Social studies
VanHerck, D. V., 310
Vertical articulation, 239
Vertical integration of knowledge, 86, 92–93
Viewing as component of language arts, 113
Virginia Polytechnic Institute, 313

W

Wardell, V. S., 316
Warner, William E., 71–72
The Way Things Work (McCaulay), 148
Webbing, 41
in planning integrated content or skills, 89–90
in team teaching, 92
Weisner, T., 10
Wendt, 150
Wescott, J. W., 95–96
West, W. E., 308–309
Whole language, 78
Whole-school approach, 233–244
assessment in, 242
community in, 233–234

constructivist theory in, 240–242
development of Center for Applied Learning in, 234–235
boxed, modular activities in, 237–238
curricular components in, 237
curriculum development in, 236–237
daily schedule in, 238–239
developing an articulated technology education program in, 239–240 facility in, 235–236
evolution of curriculum in, 243–244 refining curriculum in, 242–243
Williams, W. R., III, 311
Willis, S., 15
Wirth, A., 11
WKID Radio, 168–169, 371–380
Wright, M. D., 29–30
Wright, T., 112
Writing as component of language arts, 113–114
Wyoming, Center for Applied Learning in, 233–241
Wyoming Innovative Trust Fund, 234

Y

Young, D. R., 309

Z

Zooconomy units, 54–55
Zuga, Karen F., 73, 81, 84, 90, 249–250, 318